As noted in our September report (9/21/2021):

Unilever PLC (and all tradeable subsidiaries) were added to the “Scrutinized Companies that Boycott Israel” list on July 29, 2021. Florida Statutes address the termination of business activities and limitation of commercial relations in Israeli-controlled territories that were present in recent actions by Ben & Jerry's, a wholly owned subsidiary of Unilever PLC. The company letter of July 19, 2021, announced plans to stop selling its ice cream in the West Bank and Gaza. Ben & Jerry's also plans to terminate its license, as of year-end 2022, with the Israeli partner who has manufactured and distributed Ben & Jerry's products in Israel since 1987.

Update: On June 29, 2022, Unilever announced it had reached a new arrangement for Ben & Jerry's products in Israel. The company sold its Ben & Jerry's business interests in Israel to Avi Zinger, the owner of American Quality Products Ltd (AQP), the current Israel-based licensee. Soon after this announcement, Ben & Jerry's sued parent company Unilever regarding the agreement. On July 14, 2022, Ben & Jerry's and Unilever announced plans to seek mediation over the disputed sale of the ice cream maker's Israeli business to a local licensee. Pending resolution of the mediation process and any related BDS activities, Unilever and affiliates remain on the Scrutinized Companies that Boycott Israel List at this time.
