Michael Hass, Lloyd Jones, LLC., agent for the developer gave a brief history about the artist, developer and the site & he explained how the piece related/connected to the site. He stated that the piece represented a supporting community, free from gender or age discrimination. He explained to the board that the artist had passed away but the developer had found a Florida foundry based in Miami to finish the piece. Vice Chair Lee inquired about landscaping, to which Mr. Hass replied that landscaping would be minimal so that it did not overshadow the piece but added that there would be lighting. The board inquired about a bench or lake access to which Mr. Hass replied that he could look into installing a bench but there was no real lake access.
