

MEMORANDUM

TO: City of Port St. Lucie
FROM: GrayRobinson
DATE: February 26, 2022
SUBJECT: 2022 Legislative Session – Week 7 (February 21-25)

With only two weeks left, the final official day for committee meetings is Tuesday, March 1. Thereafter, it would require a waiver of the chamber's rules to meet again. As such, many bills are dead, some are nearly dead, several bills are heading to their final committee stops, and others are clearing through the chamber floors. Along with multiple bills being signed into law by Governor DeSantis, week seven brought advancements on bills focusing on juvenile expunction and election integrity, the confirmation of the Surgeon General, and discussions over floating solar. These and other topics are covered in our summary of the week in Tallahassee.

City Activities

If you believe the rumors (and it is the season of rumors), House and Senate budget conference will begin the middle of next week. There are some issues that still need to be ironed out between the two chambers, but it is looking more and more like the Legislature will conclude its budget process on time. As reportedly previously, the Southern Grove Jobs Corridor Water Main Project and C-23 projects are in one of the budgets and eligible for Budget Conference (see notes below).

HB 2053 and Senate LFIR 2262 – City of Port St. Lucie Tradition Regional Park – $500,000 – Approved by Agriculture & Natural Resources Appropriations Agenda on January 19 – Did not make budget.

HB 2389 and Senate LFIR 2263 – Port St. Lucie River/C-23 Water Quality Restoration Project Area 7A Design – $416,875 – Approved by Agriculture & Natural Resources Appropriations Committee – $208,438 in House Budget, Line 1665A.

HB 2391 and Senate LFIR 2264 – Port St. Lucie Southern Grove Jobs Corridor Water Main Project - $1,774,150 – Approved by Agriculture & Natural Resources Appropriations Committee – $500,000 in Senate Budget, Line 1665A.

Summary of Week Seven (February 21-25)

COVID-19 Protections

Governor DeSantis has signed into law a measure that will extend protections from COVID-19 liability lawsuits for nursing homes, hospitals, and doctors (Senate Bill 7014). Passed in 2021, current law states that in order to sue a health care provider over COVID-19, the plaintiff must prove gross negligence or intentional misconduct. Businesses were provided immunity liability protections up until March 2022 – now health care workers will continue to be protected from these lawsuits until June 1, 2023.

Budget

A $3.3 billion divide between the Senate and House preferred budgets have called for conference meetings from both sides. The House version stands at $105.3 billion with $2.9 billion for the Department of Corrections, $100 million for nurse training programs, $1.2 billion for Everglades restoration and water programs, and a $200 million cut from schools that imposed mask mandates. The Senate unanimously voted for their budget proposal of $108.6 billion which sets aside $24 billion for K-12 schools, $300 million for affordable housing, and increases state workers minimum wage to $15. The major policy differences in proposals include education, health care, state worker raises, environmental spending, and water policy. In hopes to submit a final budget before March 8th (leaving enough time for the 72-hour constitutionally required waiting period for a vote) members will meet for budget conference starting next week to negotiate both proposals.

Floating Solar

On the floor, House Bill 1411 passed unanimously and is on its way to the Senate. This legislation by Rep. Avila would direct the Office of Energy to develop and submit to the Legislature recommendations for a regulatory framework for the development and operation of floating solar-power facilities. These plans would be due December 31, 2022. This comes more than two years after the Miami-Dade Commission approved a resolution to study the feasibility of using floating solar. An amendment adds an extension of municipalities' power to adopt ordinances specifying "buffer and landscaping requirements" for the facilities; originally that power fell to the counties. The companion bill, Senate Bill 1338, by Sen. Diaz awaits its second reading.

Property Tax Break

House Bill 1563 by Rep. Tomkow now heads to Senate Appropriations before hitting the floor. This legislation would increase the value of a homestead property from $100,000 to $150,000 exempt from non-school taxes (an additional $50,000) for teachers, police officers, military members, and child welfare professionals. The bill would save homeowners and cost local government $81 million in the first year. According to the staff analysis, it would require the state to send $4.6 million to fiscally restrained counties. A critic stated this wouldn't help these workers who didn't own property, or if their property wasn't valued at $100,000 or more. However, the measure received bipartisan support.

Election Police

The Governor's priorities regarding election integrity have been in the spotlight with Senate Bill 524 (Sen. Hutson), which seeks to change a few areas of Florida election laws. The legislation would create the Office of Election Crimes and Security, impose a $1,000 fine for organizations that alter applications by changing someone's party affiliation without consent, and increase the penalties on organizations that violate election registration laws from $1,000 to $50,000. During a two-hour debate in its last committee meeting (Appropriations), Sen. Gibson argued that this will cause a division in the country. Republicans look to strengthen Florida's voting laws with this proposal. Senator Broxson states "the measure is insurance for the future rather than a reaction to the past." This bill and the companion, House Bill 7061 by Rep. Byrd, are both ready for a vote on their respective floors.

Surgeon General

Despite opposition from Democrats, the Senate voted 21-15 to confirm Joseph Ladapo as the state's sixth Surgeon General. Sen. Pizzo, along with his party, voiced his complaints stating, "We can't have the top doctor in the nation's third largest state be a yes man for a politician."

Republicans supported the confirmation saying Ladapo, a Harvard graduate, was highly qualified with a lengthy resume. Ladapo will oversee the Department of Health which includes 67 County Health Departments, 22 Children's Medical Service area offices, and 12 Medical Quality Assurance regional offices.

Paid Parental Leave

House Bill 1053 (Rep. Aloupis) allows expectant parents employed by the state to pool their voluntary paid sick leave for up to a month, a perk that sick or injured employees already enjoy. Workers will have to be employed for one year before using the measure. This bill will follow the footsteps of counties and businesses that already provide paid parental leave in some way. Sen. Rodriguez, the bill sponsor for the Senate version (SB 1388) was inspired to take this on after being forced to return to work only two weeks after giving birth to her son.

Juvenile Expunction

Awaiting Senate consideration, House Bill 195 broadens a juvenile's ability to expunge their arrest record in Florida, including most felonies. Representative David Smith, the bill sponsor, calls it a good first step in justice reform. Last year, Gov. DeSantis vetoed a similar bill, citing public safety concerns regarding the negative effects that expunging serious felonies can have. In this year's proposal, a forcible felony (murder, rape, and kidnapping) exception is introduced in order to solve this problem. Representative Rayner thanked Smith for "ensuring that our children, especially ones who have made mistakes, have an ability to have a future." The staff analysis states this measure would benefit an estimated 26,000 children.
