Polanco 25-05071 5189 NW Milner Dr

(Clerk's Note: A PowerPoint was shown at this time.) Aaron Biehl, Code Compliance Supervisor, previously sworn & reading for Code Compliance Officer Polanco, read the case presentation and staff's recommendations into the record. He presented photos that were taken at the time of the inspections showing the subject property and violations. He informed the Special Magistrate that Public Works deemed the culvert as failed in 2023 and it was impeding the stormwater for the neighborhood. He stated that a permit was pulled that same year but no work was done, therefore staff were opposed to granting an extension.

The Deputy City Clerk swore in Loretta Carter who stated that her family was selling another property to pay for the repair but she had hired a contractor to pull the permit and complete the work on the culvert. Wesley Armstrong, Code Compliance Manager, requested the Special Magistrate find the property in violation.

The Special Magistrate found that the property remained in violation and gave a compliance date of June 11, 2025, then a hearing would be held to determine if a fine was to be imposed. Mr. Armstrong stated that if the Respondent could provide a signed contract showing a paid deposit, staff would work with the Respondent regarding the next hearing date.

(Clerk's Note: This item was heard after Item 6.).

Evelyn Rojas, Lien Services Department, stated that these modifications are requested by the applicant. They are heard as a matter of City policy and are not mandated by Florida Statute. City Council holds these liens, and they are considered to be assets of the City. Per City Ordinance, the Special Magistrate has authority to modify these liens, Agenda Item #1, has been agreed upon and requires Magistrate signature.

13. How Parties are Notified

Ms. Francois Dieujuste stated that a Notice of Hearing or Notice of the Certification of Fine was sent to the violator by Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to the address listed in the Tax Collector's Office for tax notices or to the address listed in the County Property Appraiser's Database. If the green card was returned, it was placed in the file and was either signed, unsigned or unclaimed. Ten days before the hearing, an agenda was posted on the bulletin board in the lobby of Port St. Lucie City Hall. Also, a Notice of Hearing was posted on the property in question, along with an Affidavit of Posting, which included a copy of the notice posted and the date and places of its posting. If the certification card was not returned to the Neighborhood Services Department, then within ten days before the Hearing, posting was completed in the same manner as if the card was returned unclaimed as stated above. The photos shown at the hearing were kept and maintained as public records of the City of Port St. Lucie's Neighborhood Services Department. She requested that the Clerk enter the cases into the record and asked the Special Magistrate if she had any questions on cases where parties were not present. The Special Magistrate replied in the negative.
