The parties agree that Agent will not be liable to any person for misdelivery of escrowed items to Seller or Buyer, unless the misdelivery is due to Agent's willful breach of this Contract or gross negligence. If Agent has doubt as to Agent's duties or obligations under this Contract, Agent may, at Agent's option, (a) hold the escrowed items until the parties mutually agree to its disbursement or until a court of competent jurisdiction or arbitrator determines the rights of the parties or (b) deposit the escrowed items with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction over the matter and file an action in interpleader. Upon notifying the parties of such action, Agent will be released from all liability except for the duty to account for items previously delivered out of escrow. If Agent is a licensed real estate broker, Agent will comply with Chapter 475, Florida Statutes. In any suit in which Agent interpleads the escrowed items or is made a party because of acting as Agent hereunder, Agent will recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred, with these amounts to be paid from and out of the escrowed items and charged and awarded as court costs in favor of the prevailing party.
- 215 11. CURE PERIOD: Prior to any claim for default being made, a party will have an opportunity to cure any alleged 216 default. If a party fails to comply with any provision of this Contract, the other party will deliver written notice to the non217 complying party specifying the non-compliance. The non-complying party will have 10 days (5 days if left blank) after 218 delivery of such notice to cure the non-compliance. Notice and cure shall not apply to failure to close.
 - 12. FORCE MAJEURE: Buyer or Seller shall not be required to perform any obligation under this Contract or be liable to each other for damages so long as performance or non-performance of the obligation, or the availability of services, insurance, or required approvals essential to Closing, is disrupted, delayed, caused or prevented by Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means: hurricanes, floods, extreme weather, earthquakes, fire, or other acts of God, unusual transportation delays, or wars, insurrections, or acts of terrorism, which, by exercise of reasonable diligent effort, the non-performing party is unable in whole or in part to prevent or overcome. All time periods, including Closing Date, will be extended a reasonable time up to 7 days after the Force Majeure no longer prevents performance under this Contract, provided, however, if such Force Majeure continues to prevent performance under this Contract more than 30 days beyond Closing Date, then either party may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to the other and the Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.
 - 13. RETURN OF DEPOSIT: Unless otherwise specified in the Contract, in the event any condition of this Contract is not met and Buyer has timely given any required notice regarding the condition having not been met, Buyer's deposit will be returned in accordance with applicable Florida Laws and regulations.

14. DEFAULT:

- (a) In the event the sale is not closed due to any default or failure on the part of Seller other than failure to make the title marketable after diligent effort, Buyer may elect to receive return of Buyer's deposit without thereby waiving any action for damages resulting from Seller's breach and may seek to recover such damages or seek specific performance. If Buyer elects a deposit refund, Seller may be liable to Broker for the full amount of the brokerage fee.
- (b) In the event the sale is not closed due to any default or failure on the part of Buyer, Seller may either (1) retain all deposit(s) paid or agreed to be paid by Buyer as agreed upon liquidated damages, consideration for the execution of this Contract, and in full settlement of any claims, upon which this Contract will terminate or (2) seek specific performance. If Buyer fails to timely place a deposit as required by this Contract, Seller may either (1) terminate the Contract and seek the remedy outlined in this subparagraph or (2) proceed with the Contract without waiving any remedy for Buyer's default.
- 15. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS: In any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Contract, the prevailing party, which for purposes of this provision will include Buyer, Seller and Broker, will be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses.
- 16. NOTICES: All notices will be in writing and may be delivered by mail, overnight courier, personal delivery, or electronic means. Parties agree to send all notices to addresses specified on the signature page(s). Any notice, document, or item given by or delivered to an attorney or real estate licensee (including a transaction broker) representing a party will be as effective as if given by or delivered to that party.

ADDENDUM: BUYER'S ADDENDUM

- 1. This Addendum will be incorporated into the Commercial Contract (hereinafter referred to as the "Contract") between Joel David 3, LLC ("Seller"), and City of Port St. Lucie, a Florida municipal corporation ("Buyer"), and shall supersede any provisions in conflict with the attached Contract, and which may be in conflict with the provisions contained herein below.
- 2. Ryan Clause. Seller acknowledges and agrees that there may be deed restrictions, restrictive covenants and such other restrictions appearing on the plat or otherwise common to the subdivision affecting the Property. Buyer's acceptance of title to the Property, which is subject to such restrictions, shall not be construed as a waiver of Buyer's claim of exemption as a governmental unit, from any cloud or encumbrance created by the above-mentioned matters pursuant to Ryan v. Manalapan, 414 So.2d 193 (Fla. 1982). Buyer and Seller hereby agree that this language shall appear on the face of the deed transferring title to the Property from Seller to Buyer.
- 3. Default. If either party defaults under this Contract, then the other party may waive the default and proceed with closing without adjustment to the Purchase Price, in which event any and all claims with respect to such default shall be deemed extinguished, or either party may seek specific performance. In no event shall either party be liable for any damages (actual, special, consequential, punitive, or otherwise) for any default under this Contract.
- 4. Dispute Resolution. All controversies, claims, and other matters in question arising out of or relating to this transaction or this Contract or its breach shall not be resolved through neutral binding arbitration; any disputes arising out of or relating to this transaction, or this Contract shall be resolved through any and all other legal remedies available under the laws of the State of Florida.
- 5. Eminent Domain. The City of Port St. Lucie, as the Buyer in this proposed real estate transaction, reserves the right to file a condemnation action to secure clear fee simple marketable title to the Property against any and all known or unknown persons who may claim any interest whatsoever in and to the Property. In the event the City determines that it is in its best interest to acquire title through a condemnation proceeding, Seller expressly consents to such proceeding and agrees not to contest the taking on any grounds whatsoever, and to accept the Purchase Price, as stated herein, pursuant to a settlement agreement and/or a Stipulated Order of Taking and Final Judgment, as required by the City in its sole discretion, that will incorporate all of the obligations and responsibilities of the owner, as full and just compensation for the taking of the Property, including all attorneys' fees and costs and special damages, if any.
- 6. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. Buyer and Seller each knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally waive any right which either may have to a trial by jury with respect to any litigation or legal proceeding based upon or arising directly, indirectly or otherwise in connection with, out of, relating to, or from this Contract or transaction. Buyer and Seller have specifically negotiated for this waiver and understand the legal consequences of it. This provision shall survive the closing of this transaction or any earlier termination of this Contract.

- 7. Governing Law. This Contract is governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida. In the event any legal or equitable action arises under this Contract, the proper venue of any such action shall lie exclusively within the state courts in and for St. Lucie County, Florida.
- 8. Recording. This Contract or notice thereof may be recorded by Buyer in the minutes of the Clerk of the City Council for Port St. Lucie, St. Lucie County, Florida, but shall not be recorded in the Official Public Records of the Clerk of the Court of St. Lucie County, Florida.
- 9. Invalid Provisions. In the event any term or provision of this Contract is held illegal, unenforceable or inoperative as a matter of law, the remaining terms and provisions will not be affected thereby but will be valid and remain in force and effect, provided that the inoperative provision(s) are not essential to the interpretation or performance of this Contract in accordance with the clear intent of the parties.
- 12. Counterparts. This Contract may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile copy and/or email transmission of this Contract and any signatures thereon shall be considered for all purposes as originals.
- 10. Entire Agreement. This Contract contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto as it pertains to the subject matter contained herein and shall supersede and take precedence over any and all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings between the parties hereto.
- 11. Effectiveness. The effectiveness of this Contract is contingent upon and subject to approval by the City Council of Port St. Lucie, as well as a public hearing, if applicable. The Contract and the City's obligation to close is conditioned on City Council approval.
