Litigation Statement

Proposer has one single litigation in the last 5 years. Proposer has been sued by a party injured in a sweeper accident in which the Proposer's insurer and Proposer vigorously contest liability since the other party caused the accident by running into the sweeper. This is confirmed by the accident report by the police. This case is in the early stage at this time. Generally, operators like Proposer may be made a party to a lawsuit in the ordinary course of their doing business because of accidents caused by the other party. Notably, Proposer has not been involved in any litigation over its ability to perform its contracts, and never has Proposer's performance bond been called upon.

Respectfully Submitted,

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN , later.

I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and 3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and 4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.
