2019-698

ACTION: Motion passed unanimously by voice vote to approve Item 13 a).

(Clerk's Note: This item was heard after 13b.)

Assistant City Manager Graham showed a list of other cities in the state that participate in naming rights of their centers, and that the City used the Naming Rights and Benefactor Program that already existed. He added that the City followed procurement protocol and placed an ad in the newspaper, along with issuing a press release on the City's website. The Civic Center Director informed the City Council that they received an offer of $195,000/year for a 5-year contract with an additional 5-year renewal from MIDFLORIDA Credit Union. She stated that the name is being negotiated, but insisted that the City would not lose its identity. Councilwoman Caraballo inquired what the profitability goal was for the Civic Center, to which the Civic Center Director replied that they reached 34% of expenses for the new Fiscal Year and were on the right track. Councilwoman Caraballo inquired if the goal wasn't met who, essentially, paid for the Civic Center, to which the Civic Center Director replied that the funds came from the General Fund and centers such as this do not pay for themselves, but changes like naming rights would help the taxpayers. Mayor Oravec asked for clarification on Councilwoman Caraballo questions, to which Councilwoman Caraballo replied that there had been citizen discussions and she wanted to make sure that the citizens understood that this was a great move forward. Mayor Oravec replied that it was pure revenue, since the sign installation was at the expense of MIDFLORIDA. Vice Mayor Martin voiced that MIDFLORIDA was a great fit and complimented them for their Public Art on Gatlin Boulevard. Councilman Carvelli agreed with the Civic Center Director's opinion on the rebranding and congratulated her on her accomplishments thus far. Councilwoman Morgan stated that MIDFLORIDA was very involved in the community and felt that they were a great fit. Mayor Oravec agreed with the Council's comments and hoped that the City could be incorporated in the logo.

There being no further discussion, Councilwoman Caraballo moved to approve agenda item 2019-698. Councilwoman Morgan seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously by voice vote.

13.b Approval of tentative agreement between the City of Port St. Lucie and the International Union of Police Lieutenants

2019-688

ACTION: Motion passed unanimously by voice vote to approve Item 13 b).

(Clerk's Note: This item was heard after 8 a.)

The Interim Human Resources Director stated that the unit represented 9 lieutenants, and that the agreement was for 3 years with no reopeners, provided an increase to the pay scale in the first year with no increases to salaries in the remaining 2 years of the contract and came out to 9.26%. She added that the health care benefits, and Sick Time conversion were in line with other bargaining units and that the pension changes and Off-Duty Detail structure were the same as the other sworn units, which were approved by City Council. She stated that staff recommended approval. Mayor Oravec inquired about the retirement reduction, to which the Assistant Human Resources Director replied that once their fully funded benefit was reached they reduced the employee contribution to 5% instead of 9%, which was in line with the other sworn units. The City Manager stated that by then most employees would be retired or in the DROP.

Councilwoman Caraballo moved to approve agenda item 2019-688. Councilwoman Morgan seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously by voice vote. The City Manager stated that all bargaining units were negotiated and frustrations have ceased. Mayor Oravec thanked everyone for their hard work and dedication to help the City thrive.
